REPERTOIRE GUIDELINES

FOR ALL APPLICANTS: 30-45 minutes of music in a variety of styles and periods. No specific works or composers are required. However, the CDs must demonstrate the breadth of your technical and artistic abilities. A work composed since 1990 is not required for the Preliminary Round (CD). You may repeat repertoire in later rounds.

INSTRUMENTALISTS: Include only complete works or complete movements. Concerti or other works with orchestra may be included. These works may also be performed with piano accompaniment, except for solo pianists.

SINGERS: Include selections in at least 3 languages, one of which must be English. You may submit individual songs; complete cycles are not required. There is no aria requirement, and no more than two may be included.

SPECIALISTS: Specialists in contemporary, early or non-traditional music may apply. Repertoire must show programmatic diversity and technical scope.

NON-TRADITIONAL INSTRUMENTALISTS are invited to apply. CAG would welcome a statement of purpose and information on repertoire and technical requirements, if appropriate.
